

Aimhigher London

Autumn Term 2020 Engagement Summary

Online engagement

- 1,681 unique page views on Members Area
- 149 contacts receive members' Outreach Bulletin x4
- Most viewed: KS5 materials & KS3 materials
- Most popular resources: KS5 LTW Project: Creative Industries

1681

739

Learner events & activity

- 739 Learners engaged with
- 83 Learners took part in 'live' events from 12 Schools
- 47 Student Ambassadors involved from 7 HEIs (live & recorded)
- 19 Academics contributed from 6 HEIs (live & recorded)
- 4 new KS5 Projects launched involving 9 of our HEIs
- New virtual 'live' KS4 session piloted in 2 schools

Members

Confirmed 4 new Uni Connect schools into partnership:

- Eltham Hill School
- Coopers School
- Trinity Church of England School
- Chislehurst School for Girls

+4

Feedback from learner activity

"Really well organised and structured & the student ambassadors were brilliant-worked really well!"

Teacher on KS4 virtual live 'Game' session

"I have always loved art, particularly now that I am studying it at A-Level. I have been considering a career in the creative field, which sparked my interest in the Aimhigher Learning to Work programme"

KS5 learner on 'Learning to Work project' - Creative

Targeted LAC/SEND Networks

3 Network Meetings facilitated
3 'Live' events in planning

LAC Coaching Project 'Map of Me'

17 KS3/4 LAC learners recruited from 5 London boroughs
18 HEI Student Coaches recruited
Working with 17 individual schools

Teacher Network

Teacher to teacher online network forum launched by our UniConnect HUBs Team:

62 members signed up to connect with other teachers and share good practice

36% of signups from our member schools

138 sets of university and career related resources for teachers, parents/carers & learners

22% of resources provided by member HEIs

Parents

44 parents from 9 partner schools took part in 'Possible Selves' online workshops

76 parents from 9 member schools engaged with 'Possible Selves' e-communications

3 of our HEI members provided Student Ambassadors to work directly with parents from member schools

"Let us have more of these sessions, they are very beneficial and especially at tough times like now."
Parent of Year 10 learner, Springwest

"All in all, I found the experience really positive and would recommend it to other parents."
Parent of Year 10 learner, St Thomas More