

Winners 2025

A huge thank you to everyone who joined us for the 8th Annual Aimhigher London Practitioner Awards! and a particular thank you to our compere and alumni Kieran Roper who compered the evening. It was wonderful to celebrate our all our partners who go the extra mile to champion equitable access and participation for all.

Together, we are making a real difference in the lives of young people who need it most.

Congratulations to all of this year's award winners

Working in Partnership

Demonstrable approach to impartial and collaborative working across the network

Alison Piggot, Carshalton Boys Sports College

Ethos and Values

Embodying the ethos and values of Aimhigher London in year

Amandeep Phull, Greenford High School

Going the Extra Mile

An individual who has gone above and beyond in partnership with Aimhigher London

Caitlin Atha, University of Roehampton

Ambassador of the Year

Outstanding contribution as a positive role model to learners in year

Taylor Lee, St Mary's University, Twickenham

Equity of Access

Embedding equality and diversity considerations across Aimhigher London programmes

Helen Duncan, St Mary's University, Twickenham

Innovation

Developing and/or delivering creative solutions to widen access for all

Widening Participation Team, St Mary's University, Twickenham

Champion over Time

Outstanding commitment to the work of Aimhigher London over time

Mandip Birk, St Mary's University, Twickenham

School of the Year

Significant and sustained commitment/contributions to the work of Aimhigher London in year

Springwest Academy

HE Institution of the Year

Significant and sustained commitment/contributions to the work of Aimhigher London in year

Goldsmiths, University of London